Messrs. H. H. Chapman,

Dear Sirs:

Find $1.64 inclosed for the 1840 Dollar. Did you get me that set of Shanefield Currency with perforated edges?

Are there any "fair" 1794 dollars to be had at about $25,00? I know the better ones, at a higher price, are the cheapest, according to your theory, but it's the "higher price" that I won't pay just now!

Kindest regards to your father — hope he has escaped the "grippe".

Most sincerely,

William De Gallo,

Gable

My dear Mr. Chapman:

Can you send me cuts (Electrotypes) of the new designs of either 10¢ 25¢ or 50¢ of the Silver Coinage? Would like one of each if they can be had. It is our intention to advertise a "Silver Day" at our store, and give out the new Coinage in change. Merely wanted the Cuts of the new coins to advertise with for a day or two.

Yours truly,

William F. Gable.

Dear Sirs:

Send me:

2 Proof Sets 1892.
3 Half Dollars 1892, Uncirculated.
1 Quarter 1892, 1st issue "E".
1 " " 2nd " .

Do you think the "1892 Half" will become "rare"? You had previously quoted me $2.50 on Proof Sets as per inclosed p.c. but if $2.65 is price it is all right. Can I get a few more "Half Dollars" at same price if wanted?

Yours Sincerely
William H. Gable.

By the Way!

Isn't it Cheaper to buy Proof Sets at
$2.50 than the ar-
Circulated Half at $1.00? — in proportion.

Only want the Cal. gold, in case they sell at what you consider a low price for them. My farm in Chester County, Pa. has proven to be so expensive that I must give up buying books, coins and all such things, a "Collector of Cattle" takes Cash!

Meant to reply to your letter of some time ago saying that if you wished to send on memo. the 1872 Silver Dollar "S" Mint & 1858 Gold Dollar "D" Mint you might. Also send one set each of Uncirculated Sets of Brandt Mints you have of 1900 & 1901. Do you have other years of Brandt Mints? So not send more as I dare not be tempted at this time! Hope you are all well. My family or rather Mrs Gable and the smaller children are on the farm at Wyebrook, Chester Co. - I get down as often as I can get away from the slavery of Business!

Yours Sincerely,
William H. Gable.

Dear friends;

Please accept my thanks for your kind and interesting favor of the 27th inst. which I appreciate very much. I hope sometime to take up the work of collecting again, but will be obliged to take a temporary rest. Your suggestion as to keeping the coins is all right except the anxiety caused by the possible danger of their being stolen. Will put them in a Security Bank Vault for the present.

With kind regards and best wishes,

I am Yours Sincerely,

William H. Gable.
